Under California law, you may continue to receive direct physical therapy for a period of up to 45 calendar days or 12 visits, whichever occurs first.

After this period your physical therapist may continue treating you only after receiving, from a person holding a physician/surgeon's certificate issued by the Medical Board of California or Osteopathic Medical Board of California, or from a person holding a certificate to practice podiatric medicine from the California Board of Podiatric Medicine and acting within his or her scope of practice, a dated signature on the physical therapist's plan of care indicating approval of the treatment plan.
